

Homestay

Warm Up:
Talk about your family.

Have

- a drink
- a rest
- a snack

Do

- the dishes
- the cleaning
- a favor

Take

- a picture
- a shower
- a taxi

Get

- a ride
- a towel
- ready

Read and translate:

Could

Use 'could' to talk about possibility.

Could I have a snack?

Could I take a picture?

Could you do me a favor?

Should

Use 'should' to make suggestions.

Should I do the dishes?

Should I get ready?

Should I take a taxi?

May

Use 'may' to ask permission nicely.

May I get a ride?

May I watch TV?

May I take a shower?

Fill in the blanks:

Do Get Take Have

1. _____ the dishes.

2. _____ a ride.

3. _____ a shower.

4. _____ a snack.

5. _____ a taxi.

6. _____ a drink.

7. _____ a favor.

8. _____ ready.

Match:

Should

Could

May

I do the dishes?

I take a shower?

I get a ride?

I take a picture?

I take a taxi?

you do me a favor?

I watch TV?

I have a snack?

Read the situation and choose the expression:

You want to meet a friend at the shopping mall.

Could you do me a favor?

A

You need someone to help you?

Should I do the dishes?

B

You went jogging in the park and are dirty.

May I get a ride?

C

You just ate dinner and you want to help clean.

May I take a shower?

D

Look at the answer to write correct question.

Should I get ready?

Could I have a snack?

May I watch TV?

Should I take a taxi?

Sure, what do you want to watch?

No, I can give you a ride.

Yes, we need to go soon.

Of course! Would you like some cookies.

Reading and writing:

Boston Homestay

Hi! My name is Sara. I'm a high school student in Japan. Last year I had an incredible experience. I went to study for a month in Boston. I had so much fun.

Boston is an amazing city. But, what I remember the most from my trip is my homestay family, the Connors!

There was Pete (the dad), Mary (the mom) and Emma (the daughter). They also had a pet dog, Rex. I loved dogs, so I was happy to meet Rex for the first time.

We did a lot of activities together. They took me to museums and went to restaurants. Life in a new country can be difficult, but they made it easy.

I miss the Connors!

What does Sara remember the most?

What did they do together?

What did Sara think of Rex?

Writing: Can you think of 5 questions you want to ask your home stay family?

Read and make your own dialogues:

Hi Sara. How are you?

OK. I'm a little hungry.

Really. That's too bad.

Yes. Could I have a snack?

Would you like an apple?

That would be great.

Read the dialogue with a partner. Then create your own.

Blank dialogue boxes for practice, each consisting of a white speech bubble and a green speech bubble.

Where are you going?

I'm going to the park.

That is far away.

Should I take a taxi?

No. I can give you a ride.

Really? Thanks!

Read the dialogue with a partner. Then create your own.

Blank dialogue boxes for practice, each consisting of a white speech bubble and a red speech bubble.

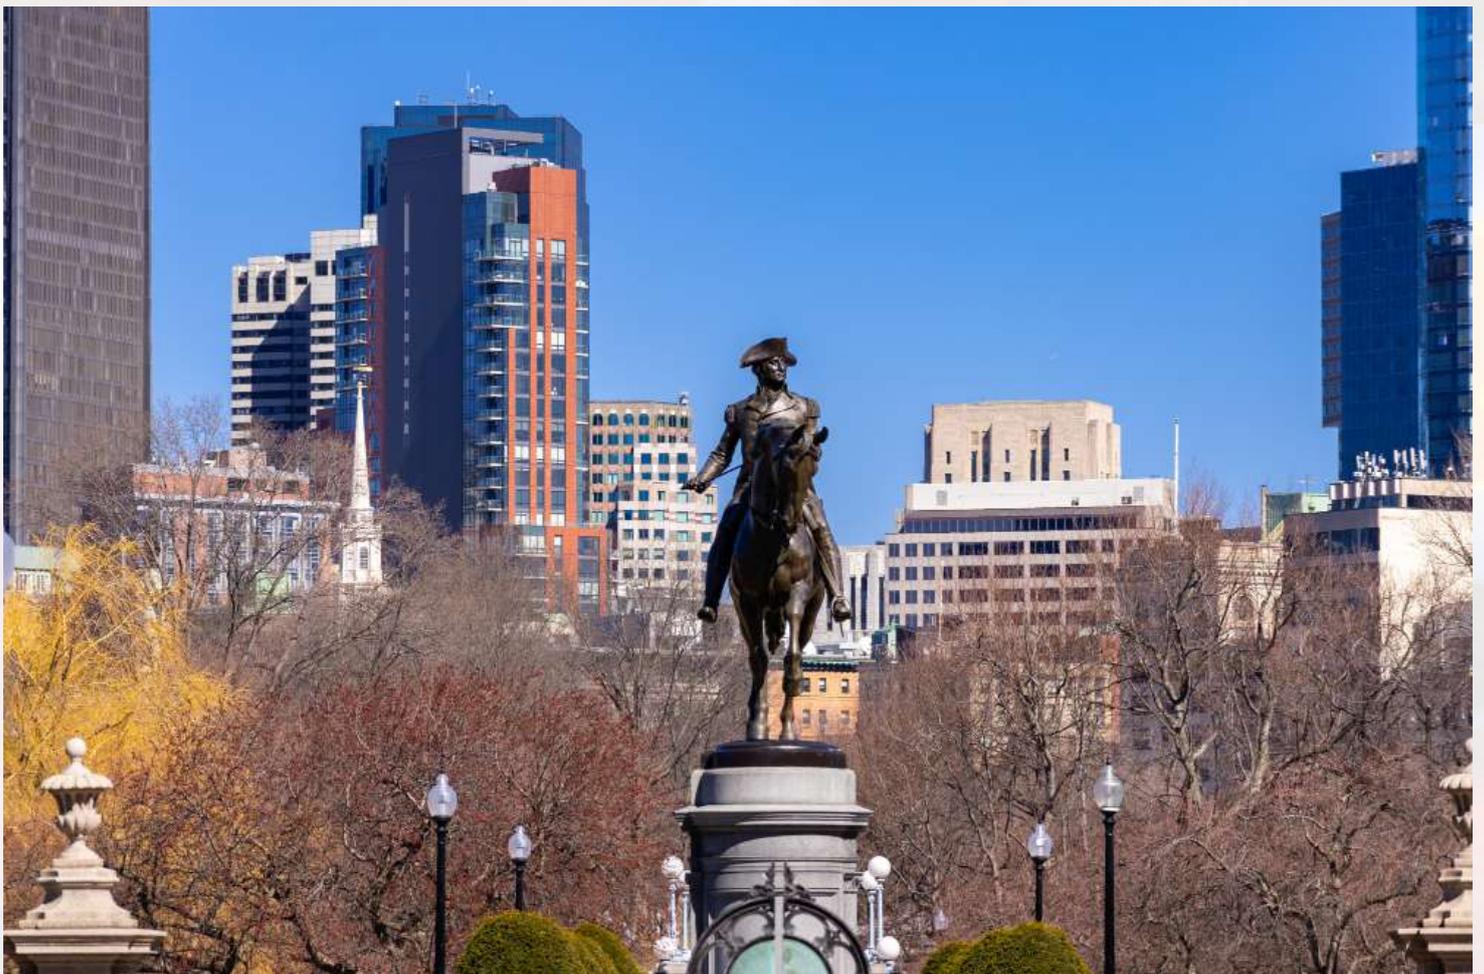

Introduction to Boston

Learn More

Boston is one of the oldest and most important cities in the USA. It is located on the Northeast coast. There are four distinct seasons in Boston. It has cold and stormy winters, mild springs, hot summers, and a cool fall.

Europeans first settled in Boston around 1600. It played a major role in the American Revolution. The famous 'Boston Tea Party' took place in 1773. It was not an actual tea party, but a large protest against the King of England.

Now, Boston is known for education. Three of the biggest and best universities are located in Boston. These include, Harvard, MIT and Tufts.

Vocabulary:

Important	Northeast	Distinct	Mild	Settle
Famous	Boston Tea Party	American Revolution	Protest	Coast

Expressions:

Boston is one of the oldest cities.	Boston is known for education.
There are four distinct seasons.	Three of the best universities are in Boston.
Boston is famous for the 'Boston Tea Party'.	Boston is one of the most important cities.

Assignment:

Write a short paragraph on the history of Boston.

Questions:

Watch the video and answer the questions.

When was Boston first settled?

Describe the four seasons of Boston.

What are the three major universities in Boston?

Skills Page 1: Reading and writing

Sara and her homestay mother, Mary, are going to the museum today. Sara is asking Mary some questions. What do they say?

Read the conversation below and choose the question. Write the correct letter in the space.

Example:

Sara: _____ D

Mary: No, that's OK. We can do them when we come home.

1. Sara: _____

Mary: No, you don't have time for that.

2. Sara: _____

Mary: We will bring some food with us.

3. Sara: _____

Mary: Yes, we are going in 5 minutes.

4. Sara: _____

Mary: No, I can give you a ride.

5. Sara: Wow! Look at that. _____

Mary: Yes, I can take a picture for you.

A Could I take a picture?

B Should I get ready?

C May I watch TV?

D Should I do the dishes?

E Could I have a snack?

F May I get a ride?

G Should I take a taxi?

H May I take a shower?

Skills Page 2: Speaking

The instructor will ask a question about a topic e.g. 'Let's talk about some different months of the year. What is the best month at school?'

You are meeting your homestay family for the first time. What do you want to tell them about yourself? What questions do you want to ask them?